

Description and definitions

1. Slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour

(1) A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person holds another person in slavery or servitude and the circumstances are such that the person knows or ought to know that the other person is held in slavery or servitude, or
- (b) the person requires another person to perform forced or compulsory labour and the circumstances are such that the person knows or ought to know that the other person is being required to perform forced or compulsory labour.

(2) In subsection (1) the references to holding a person in slavery or servitude or requiring a person to perform forced or compulsory labour are to be construed in accordance with Article 4 of the Human Rights Convention.

(3) In determining whether a person is being held in slavery or servitude or required to perform forced or compulsory labour, regard may be had to all the circumstances.

(4) For example, regard may be had:

- (a) to any of the person's personal circumstances (such as the person being a child, the person's family relationships, and any mental or physical illness) which may make the person more vulnerable than other persons;
- (b) to any work or services provided by the person, including work or services provided in circumstances which constitute exploitation within section 3(3) to (6).

(5) The consent of a person (whether an adult or a child) to any of the acts alleged to constitute holding the person in slavery or servitude, or requiring the person to perform forced or compulsory labour, does not preclude a determination that the person is being held in slavery or servitude, or required to perform forced or compulsory labour.

2. Human trafficking

(2) A person commits an offence if the person arranges or facilitates the travel of another person ("V") with a view to V being exploited.

(3) It is irrelevant whether V consents to the travel (whether V is an adult or a child).

(4) A person may in particular arrange or facilitate V's travel by recruiting V, transporting or transferring V, harbouring or receiving V, or transferring or exchanging control over V

(5) A person arranges or facilitates V's travel with a view to V being exploited only if

- (a) the person intends to exploit V (in any part of the world) during or after the travel, or
- (b) the person knows or ought to know that another person is likely to exploit V (in any part of the world) during or after the travel.

(5) "Travel" means:

- (a) arriving in, or entering, any country,
- (b) departing from any country,
- (c) travelling within any country.

(6) A person who is a UK national commits an offence under this section regardless of:

- (a) where the arranging or facilitating takes place, or
- (b) where the travel takes place.

(7) A person who is not a UK national commits an offence under this section if:

- (a) any part of the arranging or facilitating takes place in the United Kingdom, or

(b) the travel consists of arrival in or entry into, departure from, or travel within, the United Kingdom.
